REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

Date : 8 March 2019

On 8 March 2019, our college organized a special programme to celebrate International Women's Day and to raise awareness about the issues and challenges faced by women in our society. The programme included lectures by faculty members and students, a mono play by Mrs. Lata Sanwal and a small nukkadnatak by our students.

The first speaker was Dr. J. N. Pant, Assistant professor Botany, spoke about the need to take hard steps by the government to ensure women's security and prevent women's harassment.

The second speaker was Dr. D. S. Khati, Assistant Professor, Political Science, spoke about the dowry eradication in society. He explained the legal provisions and penalties for dowry offences and urged the audience to report any instances of dowry demands or harassment. He also appealed to the parents and the youth to reject the dowry culture and promote gender equality.

The third speaker was Dr. Beena Lohiya, Assistant professor,botany spoke about women's empowerment through education. She highlighted the importance of education for women's personal and professional development and their contribution to the society. She also shared some inspiring stories of successful women leaders and entrepreneurs from different fields.

The fourth speaker was Dr. Kamad Kumar, the principal of our college, who spoke about the role of educational institutes in women's upliftment. He praised the achievements of our female students and faculty members and encouraged them to pursue their dreams and aspirations. He also announced some initiatives taken by our college to support women's education, such as scholarships, mentoring, counselling, and career guidance.

The programme concluded with a mono play by Mrs. Lata Sanwal, lab assistant, botany, who portrayed the life of a rural woman who struggles to overcome poverty, illiteracy, and oppression. The play was followed by a 'street play' by our students, who performed on the theme of women's empowerment.

The programme was attended by more than 500 students and staff members of our college and received positive feedback from all. It was a memorable and meaningful event that celebrated the spirit of womanhood and inspired us to work for a better future for all.
