EVENT REPORT: "VOICES OF TOMORROW"

Date 10August, 2026

Venue: College Auditorium

On August 10, 2026, Government Postgraduate College, Berinag (Pithoragarh), witnessed a remarkable celebration of literary talent, academic synergy, and youthful expression. The B.Ed. Department and the Music Department pool their efforts under the institutional theme "Voices of Tomorrow" to organize a grand Poetry and Story Writing Competition. Held at the state-of-the-art IQAC Hall, the event commenced at 2:00 PM under the strategic guidance of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and the Institutional Advisory Committee (IAC). The initiative aimed to explore student experiences, career aspirations, and social progress, positioning education as a cornerstone for sustainable nation-building.

2. INAUGURAL SESSION:

The program was formally inaugurated by the esteemed B. Ed. faculty members along with Dr. Mahesh Chandra Pandey.

3. STUDENT ENGAGEMENT AND COMPETITION DYNAMICS:

The competition saw overwhelming and enthusiastic participation from the student community, who thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to represent their thoughts on a formal stage. Overcoming a highly competitive environment, participants penned and presented original drafts in Hindi, English, and other Scheduled Indian Languages. The atmosphere in the IQAC Hall was filled with creative energy as students listened to and supported their peers during the recitation rounds.

4. JUDGING CRITERIA AND SENIOR EVALUATION PANEL:

To maintain the highest standards of academic integrity and fairness, a senior evaluation panel monitored the entire proceedings. The jury assessed each submission based on originality, thematic relevance to nation-building, language control, and strict adherence to the time limits. The elite panel consisted of:

- Dr. Sunil Pant (Senior Faculty Member)
- Dr. Deepti Mishra (Senior Faculty Member)
- Dr. Renu (Senior Faculty Member)
- Dr. Rashmi (Senior Faculty Member)
