

Master of Arts (Sociology)

Course outcomes (Semester wise)

Semester – First

Paper I – Classical Sociological Thinkers

CO1 Elaborating Development of Sociological Thought: French Revolution and Industrial Revolution

CO2 Describing contribution of August Comte: - Positivism, Law of Three Stages, Hierarchy of Sciences

CO3 Describing contribution of Emile Durkheim- Social Fact, Division of Labour, Religion, Suicide

CO4 Elaborating contribution of Max Weber- Ideal Type, Social Action, Sociology of Religion, Bureaucracy and Authority

CO5 Analyzing contribution of Karl Marx- Historical Materialism, Class and Class Conflict

Paper II- Methods in Social Research

CO1 Elaborating Objectivity v/s Subjectivity in Social Research

CO2 Describing Social Research and its major Steps

CO3 Understanding the Concept of Hypothesis

CO4 Elaborating Methods of Social Research

CO5 Describing Census / Sampling

Paper III- Rural Sociology

CO1 Elaborating Rural Sociology and Rural-urban Continuum

CO2 Understanding Basic Concept of Rural Sociology

CO3 Explaining Caste, Caste Panchayat and Jajmani System

CO4 Explaining Dominant Caste and Rural factions

CO5 Describing Rural Power Structure and Leadership

Semester- Second

Paper I – Indian Sociological Thinkers

CO1 Explaining Development of Sociology in India

CO2 Describing the contribution of Radhakamal Mukherjee

CO3 Elaborating major works of G.S. Ghuriye

CO4 To know the contribution of M.N. Srinivas

CO5 Elaborating major works of A.R.Desai

Paper II- Techniques of Social Research and Statistics

CO1 Explaining Research Design and its types

CO2 Elaborating Types and Sources of Data and Techniques of Data Collection

CO3 Describing Scaling Techniques

CO4 Explaining classification and Tabulation of Data

CO5 Calculating Measures of Central Tendency, Standard Deviation and correlation

Paper III- Rural Change and Rural Reconstruction

CO1 Explaining Social Change in Rural India

CO2 Describing Rural Social Problems, Peasant Unrest and Peasant Movements

CO3 Analyzing Rural Reconstruction in India

CO4 Understanding Co-operation Movement in Rural India

CO5 Explaining various Schemes and Programmes in Rural India such as CDP, PMGSY, SGSY, MNREGA, SGRY, SSA and SAGY etc

Paper IV- Urban Problems and Planning

CO1 Analyzing Problems of Migration, Housing Problems, Slums and Urban Poverty

CO2 Explaining Urban Problems: Crime, Prostitution, Juvenile Delinquency, Drug Addiction and AIDS

CO3 Analyzing Theories of Rural-Urban Migration

CO4 Understanding Industrialization and Urbanization

CO5 Explaining Urban Planning in India

Semester – Third

Paper I- Theoretical Perspectives in Sociology

CO1 Analyzing Meaning, Nature and Types of Sociological Theory

CO2 Explaining Theory, Model Building, Interrelationship between Theory and Research

CO3 Understanding Functionalism, Structural-functionalism and Neo-functionalism

CO4 Explaining Conflict Theory

CO5 Analyzing Structuralism and Post-structuralism

Paper II – Sociology of Development

CO1 Understanding Conceptual Perspective on Development

CO2 Analyzing Social Structure and Development

CO3 Elaborating Path of Development: Socialist, Marxist, Gandhian

CO4 Describing Theories of Development and Underdevelopment- Modernization, Dependency and World System

CO5 Analyzing Problems of Developed and Developing Societies

Paper III – Tribal Society in India

CO1 Describes Tribes in India and their Geographical Distribution in India

CO2 Elaborating Racial, Cultural and Economic classification of Tribes in India

CO3 Analyzing Tribal culture, various forms of Tribal Social Institutions and Status and Role of Women in Tribal Society

CO4 Describing Socio-Economic Profile and Development of Tribes and OBC's of Uttarakhand

CO5 Explaining Tribal Development Programme and appraisal of different Development Programme

Paper IV – Criminology

CO1 Explaining Criminology, Crime and Criminal

CO2 Analyzing factors of Crime and Theories of Criminal Behaviour

CO3 Analyzing Organized Crime, White Collar Crime and Crime against Women

CO4 Explaining Punishment: Objectives, Forms and Theories, Capital Punishment

CO5 Analyzing Victims of Crime and Criminal Justice System in India

Semester – Fourth

Paper I- Modern Sociological Perspective

CO1 Explaining The Critical Theory, Neo-Marxism

CO2 Analyzing Symbolic Interactionism

CO3 Explaining Phenomenology

CO4 Explaining Ethnomethodology

CO5 Describing Structuration

Paper II - Sociology of Development

CO1 Understanding Development and its Consequences

CO2 Elaborating Institutional and Cultural barriers to Development

CO3 Describing Role of Communication in Development

CO4 Explaining Role of Intellectuals, Bureaucrats and Power Politics in Development

CO5 Analyzing the Problems and Prospects of Development in Utrakhand Region

Paper III – Gender and Society

CO1 Explaining Social Construction of Gender, Gender Role and Gender Discrimination

CO2 Analyzing Theories of Feminism

CO3 Elaborating Health and Educational Status of Women in India

CO4 Explaining Women and Economy

CO5 Describing Political Participation of Women in Independent India

Paper IV- Social Demography

CO1 Explaining Meaning, Scope and Importance of Demography and Theories of Population

CO2 Analyzing Biological / Natural Theories of Population

CO3 Analyzing Socio-cultural and Economic Theories of Population

CO4 Elaborating Census in India: Pre-independence and Post-independence

CO5 Analyzing composition of Indian Population