

Report on Uniform Civil Code (04 April 2025)

A workshop on the Uniform Civil Code (UCC) was conducted on 4th April 2025. This workshop was jointly organized by the departments of Sociology and Political Science. The workshop aimed at spreading awareness about UCC and its role in maintaining social harmony. The workshop began with the lighting of the lamp before Goddess Saraswati by Professor B M Pandey, principal of Govt. PG College, Berinag and other staff members. All the faculty members and students attended the workshop. Dr. Lila Dhar Mishra commenced the workshop. The department of Sociology and Political Science shed light on the important aspects of UCC. Mr. Kavindra Singh Bora (Department of Sociology) provided an overview of UCC, its history and why the need arises to bring this law. Ms. Garima Dev (Department of Sociology) provided the significance of UCC in promoting social harmony and its potential impact on Indian society. Mrs. Santoshi (Department of Political Science) provided the information regarding the constitutional provision of UCC related to religion, marriage, inheritance and adoption etc. The students Gaurav Pathak, Neha, Purnima, Sapna Chanyal, Diksha Pant, Diya, Anjali and other students also presented their views on UCC which mainly focused on its importance, historical perspective and its rules and regulations.

Key highlights of the workshop:

The workshop mainly focused on the following points: -

What is Uniform Civil Code (UCC)- It means that all the sections of the society irrespective of their religion shall be treated equally according to a national civil code.

History of Uniform Civil Code (UCC)- which includes history from the time of British rule, legislative reforms, historical cases like Shah Bano case, Sarla Mudgal vs Union of India case etc.

Uniform Civil Code in Uttarakhand (UCC)- UCC came into effect in Uttarakhand from 27 January 2025 making it the first state to implement UCC after independence. Constitutional provision regarding marriage, inheritance, adoption, live in relationships, etc. were discussed.

Conclusion

The workshop provided a platform for students and faculty members to engage in a meaningful discussion on the Uniform Civil Code (UCC). Professor BM Pandey gave his insightful views on UCC and said that the UCC should be widely publicized among common people.

The workshop ended with the distribution of the memento to the students. The workshop achieved its goal of educating participants on Uniform Civil Code and its importance on society.

IQAC and departments of Sociology and Political Science expressed their heartfelt gratitude to all participants, students and faculty members for their valuable contribution to the workshop.
